Your Regional Councillor has invited Derek to share with us his experiences as a writer and his appreciation of amateur theatre. Derek's one act and full length plays have been performed throughout the world, including the Agatha Crusty series and 'Call Me Dusty', his play about Dusty Springfield, is being performed at the Gala Weekend.
NODA North East Annual Gala Weekend ends with the singing of Jerusalem

We wish you a safe journey home and many happy and successful shows before we meet again

National AGM and Presidential Gala Weekend : 27th to 28th September, 2024
North East Annual Gala Weekend : 25th to 27th April, 2025

All tickets should be booked at www.ticketsource.co.uk/galaweekend

The weekend ticket does not include accommodation.

Tickets are available on a first come, first served basis. An early bird ticket price has been set for those booking between 1st November, 2023 and 31st January, 2024.

Booking early will give the best choice of seats in the theatre on Saturday night.

Tickets booked after that date will be subject to a higher price.

Tickets are not refundable under any circumstances. Insurance is available on Ticketsource.

Please ensure you print or save your theatre ticket to your phone as this will be your record of where you are sitting in the theatre and will be required for access to the Gala Ball.

Tickets will not be posted.

NODA NE reserves the right to refuse entry without proof of purchase.

Confirmation of your application will be sent by email from Ticketsource.

If you are making a block booking please ensure that tickets are distributed to society members who are attending

All enquiries should be sent by email to ne-gala-weekend@noda.org.uk
