Important notices

National Operatic and Dramatic Association CIO is registered with the Information Commissioners Office and abides by the Data Protection Act 2018. Under the terms of the Data Protection Act, we are obliged to have the personal consent of members that they are happy for NODA to circulate their details amongst the membership or to members of the public enquiring about societies and performances in their area. By signing overleaf you confirm that all of the members of the society whose personal data you share with us are aware that we hold their data on our electronic systems.

Society members

- This subscription reminder has been sent to the person currently recorded as the secretary or NODA contact for your society. If the details need to be changed, please update them by registering (if you have not already done so) and logging into the NODA website or by completing the change of contact at the top of page 1.
- Society membership is open to any club, institution, organisation or association of persons, whether incorporated or unincorporated, which meets the following criteria: that it is a voluntarily organised group of individuals who, for the purpose of personal improvement, social networking or leisure, produce and promote theatrical works for performance to the public; which is governed by a constitution and/or rules which provide for it to be managed by a committee and/or officers, none of whom receive payment except for the reimbursement of defined expenses; and which contains provisions for the dissolution of the society materially the same as those in clause 29 of the Association's Constitution. Subscription banding is based on the gross ticket revenue of the society for the period 1 January 2019 to 31 December 2019.
- Associate membership is open to bodies that produce and/or promote theatrical works for performance to the public, but do not satisfy the criteria set out above.
- School, college and university membership is open to any institution that engages in the wider education of individuals, with some part of this formed by drama and the arts, be the institution state or independently funded.
- Non-performing society membership is open to those societies which, for whatever reason, may not be planning a production for the coming year but would still like to maintain the momentum and the benefits of NODA membership.
