

The background of the cover features a blue curtain with a central opening, through which a solid blue rectangular area is visible. Two white diagonal lines cross each other in the lower half of the image, forming an 'X' shape. The text is primarily white with black outlines and shadows.

Patrons: The Lord Lloyd Webber & Connie Fisher.

After almost 18 months I am delighted to relaunch the NODA Scotland magazine. My thanks to our Editor Alan Jones for all his hard working bringing together this bumper edition. Thanks also to all those who have supported the relaunch by taking adverts and to Mike Pendlowski for coordinating these.

Over the past few months it has been great to welcome 5 new or rejoining clubs as members of NODA Scotland. Our membership now sits at its highest level for several years. There are however many clubs who are not members or who have allowed their membership to lapse and are therefore missing out on the range of benefits that come as part of a NODA subscription. If you belong to a club that is not a member, please encourage them to join or pass their details to your local Regional Rep and they will happily make contact to outline the benefits of becoming a member.

NODA also offers individual membership which ensures you get direct access to a range of products and services including your own copy of NODA Today. Details on how to become a member and the extensive range of benefits can be found on the website - <https://www.noda.org.uk/membership/subscriptions>

Having carried out a membership survey back in 2023, NODA has been working hard to update not only its branding but the products and services being offered to members as well as the website. Full details will be unveiled at the national AGM, on Saturday 28 September, being held this year at the Crowne Plaza, Plymouth. If you would like to attend the national weekend, full details are included elsewhere in the Magazine.

Last month NODA Scotland held its first national training day in Perth that saw 50 members from clubs across Scotland come together for a day of professional training covering a range of disciplines. A full report can be found elsewhere in the Magazine. The feedback from the day was extremely positive and the Committee will now look at plans for future similar events. Thanks are due to the NODA Scotland Training Committee for working tirelessly to ensure the day was such a success.

No matter how long any of us have been involved in amateur theatre we can all continue to learn. The NODA Theatre Summer School is a great opportunity to do that in a safe and relaxed space whilst having the opportunity to network with other members. Details about this year's summer school can be found on the NODA website - <https://www.noda.org.uk/events/noda-theatre-summer-school-2024/summerschool>

It is important that clubs keep their contact details, held by NODA, up to date. If there have been recent changes, please pass these to Membership Secretary Mike Pendlowski so your record can be updated and ensure you don't miss out on important updates – mike.pendlowski@noda.org.uk

October will once again see NODA Scotland return to Peebles Hydro for our 70th consecutive conference at the Hydro. I am delighted to say that we are currently fully booked for the full weekend with a waiting list in operation.

Over the past six months Robbie and I have been delighted to visit over 50 productions – thank you to all those clubs that extended an invitation and offered us such a warm welcome. Apologies to those clubs that we were unable to visit – there were just not enough nights some weeks to fit everyone in. It was great to see a wide range of shows being performed from more modern through to some more traditional that have been making a welcome comeback. Every club achieved what they set out to do which was to provide an excellent evening's entertainment showcasing the impressive range of talent and creativity in all over Scotland. Our diary is already filling up for the rest of the year so please drop me an email as soon as possible if you would like to invite us to your upcoming production – stuart.dick@noda.org.uk

Every show needs an audience and listing future productions on the NODA website can give clubs valuable additional free publicity. Clubs can list shows as far in advance as they have made plans. This will ensure productions are included in the weekly break a leg message on the Facebook page as well as the listings in the magazine as well.

As always please do not hesitate to get in touch if I or your local Regional Rep can be of any help or support. Thank you for your continued support of NODA and I wish you well as you make plans over the coming months for future productions.

Stuart McCue-Dick, NODA Scotland Councillor

NODA SCOTLAND CONFERENCE 2024

NODA Scotland Conference
25-27 October 2024
Peebles Hydro

Note to Secretaries:
Please send a copy of the NODA Scotland Magazine to all members of your society to ensure that everyone is up to date.

Following the passing of Bert Lumsden on 20 June 2024 after a short illness one word has been used by all who have paid tribute – gentleman. Bert was indeed a gentleman who devoted a significant amount of time and effort to support amateur theatre locally in Dundee as a member of Dundee Operatic Society and NODA Regional Representative, across Scotland as NODA Scotland Councillor and latterly across the UK as NODA National President.

With his wife, Anne, being a member of Dundee Operatic Society it was almost inevitable that Bert would become involved with the club. Whilst never appearing on stage Bert worked away in the background. Initially elected as secretary of the club in 1966 he served in that role until being elected Treasurer in 1974. In 1975 he was elected Vice-President becoming President from 1976 until 1979. Bert also served on the casting committee as well as working front of house during show week. When he stepped down as President, Bert was made an Honorary Vice-President of the club.

As well as Dundee Operatic Society Bert was also a great supporter of the Whitehall Theatre in Dundee helping to develop it into the success it is today. He served as a Trustee for several years before handing it over to his replacement as Regional Representative, Roger Buist. He was also a patron of Downfield Musical Society from 2000 until his passing.

When Jack Underwood became NODA Scotland Regional Councillor in 1984, Bert was elected to succeed him as Regional Representative for District 2. He worked tirelessly supporting the members in the District offering help and support and making regular visits to both their rehearsals and productions, always accompanied by Anne.

When Celia Walker became NODA National President in 2003, Bert was honoured to be elected to replace her as NODA Scotland Councillor. This role saw Bert and Anne travelling all over Scotland to visit member clubs' productions. At each visit they always took time to speak to all involved both on and off stage and because of these visits made many lasting friendships across the country. In his role as Councillor Bert represented NODA Scotland on the NODA Council where he worked hard for the interests of the membership north of the border earning the respect and admiration of his fellow Council members. During his time as Councillor Bert with the support of Anne organised the annual NODA Scotland Conference at Peebles Hydro ensuring the weekends were always a great success.

In 2008 Bert was thrilled to be elected NODA National President resulting in two conferences that year at Peebles Hydro within the space of a few weeks! His new role saw him and Anne travel all over the UK representing NODA at productions and Regional conferences. When his year in office came to an end, Bert continued to serve on NODA Council until having the honour of being elected NODA National President for a second time in 2013. Once again Bert and Anne fully immersed themselves in the role and welcomed the chance to engage once again with members all over the country.

When Bert finally stepped down from NODA Council in 2017 many warm tributes were paid to him for his dedicated and diligent service over so many years. He was thanked for his wise counsel but most importantly for his and Anne's friendship over that time.

Despite recent ill health Bert and Anne continued to attend the NODA Scotland conference and visit numerous productions across the country always on hand with a friendly word of advice or support. Bert was due to turn 90 in September this year and both he and Anne were very much looking forward to catching up with friends at Peebles in October when NODA Scotland will celebrate 70 consecutive conferences at the Hydro.

Over so many years Bert and Anne were a constant at shows all over the country and at Peebles Hydro. Bert will be missed by members across the country and NODA Scotland gives thanks for his unstinting service and dedication to amateur theatre. NODA extends its sympathy to his wife Anne at this sad and difficult time.

Bert, thank you for all you did on behalf of NODA but most importantly thank you for being a friend.

Stuart McCue-Dick, NODA Scotland Councillor

Legal Advice

NODA provides extensive advice on a wide range of contractual issues and guidance on subjects that would benefit from the advice of a qualified solicitor who understands the specific requirements of amateur theatre.

Email info@noda.org.uk with a clear description of the advice required.

NODA Scotland previously presented a series of annual amateur theatrical workshops in the central West of Scotland. These workshops proved to be a great success which brought like-minded people together to develop and enhance essential performance skills required for amateur musical theatre and hosted in an environment which was safe and where people could make new friends and learn new skills together. This overall experience had not been forgotten and our membership recently expressed an interest in the recommencement of this.

The NODA Scotland Committee fully supported this initiative with an overarching aim to give the opportunity for members of clubs, societies and individual members across Scotland to develop their performance skills through the provision of local training.

NODA Scotland currently provides practical workshops at its annual conference and the intent was to replicate this high standard as well as the standard provided at the annual NODA Summer School. It was recognised that for various reasons, not everyone is able to travel to, or attend, these residential events and by offering local training at a central location, more people could engage much more easily from across Scotland.

The Scottish Committee formed a working group who developed a questionnaire which was circulated to the membership to identify the things they would like to see and be involved in at a training day which would be relevant and inclusive. It was of no surprise that the most popular topics included vocal, drama and dance. Other themes were also identified such as management of societies, props, child protection and diversity and although these topics were not disregarded, it was recognised many are picked up through other channels.

The City of Perth was selected as the central location for our training day and we write this article as we reach the end of a very successful day held in Perth's North Inch Community Campus with all the spatial and technical resources required to meet musical theatre needs.

MTI were extremely accommodating, helpful and supportive and in working closely with them we got permission to use rehearsal material from the Young Frankenstein- West End version as our focus for the training day. We engaged three highly talented and experienced tutors from across Scotland to lead each of the three workshops; Billy Muir, vocal music; Greg Robertson, dance and Ian Bustard, drama. Our tutors collaborated, and on the day, we experienced some amazing outputs from the individual workshops and when we showcased them at the end of the day.

Our evaluation of the day has been very positive from the 50 delegates who attended. Initial feedback commends the tutors for sharing their skill, talent and support by getting the best from participants and challenging those who attended by taking them out of their comfort zone. Further feedback also indicated the day was well planned and well paced with final words of expression including "excellent", "fab-u-lous", "fulfilling", "amazing", "fantastic", "brilliant" and "enjoyable".

In recognition of the encouraging feedback received from this event, we hope to build on this in the future.

This year, we celebrate our 125th anniversary! To mark the occasion we will be holding our celebration weekend at the Crowne Plaza, Plymouth from 27th-29th September 2024. Central to the weekend will be the Annual General Meeting and the inauguration of the new President, Graham Liverton.

After the AGM, there will be a black-tie gala dinner in the Mariner Suite, with a musical theatre cabaret and dancing into the night. For those arriving on Friday evening, there will be a light buffet with plenty of time for catching up with friends from all over the UK.

The hotel is adjacent to the famous Hoe where Sir Francis Drake is supposed to have been playing bowls when the Spanish Armada was approaching, way back in 1588. It is a very short walk from the hotel on to the Hoe with its stunning views over Plymouth Sound, but you can get a perfectly good view from the hotel.

Robert Fyfe, honorary president of Runway Theatre Company, has received a Medal of the Order of the British Empire for services to the arts and to the community in the city.

Mr Fyfe retired this year after 40 years with Runway Theatre Company - with 27 of them as chairman and director.

Originally called the Glasgow Airport Drama Club, the amateur dramatics company, now based in Giffnock, East Renfrewshire, has been running for more than 50 years and performs traditional pantomimes as well as rare, new and lesser-known musicals.

Mr Fyfe said: "I am honoured to receive this award for my involvement in amateur theatre, particularly with Runway Theatre Company. It has been a joy over the years to combine my passion for the arts while helping to raise funds for causes close to my heart. This recognition reflects the collaborative efforts of a dedicated community of volunteers.

A vibrant, stylized illustration of the characters from 'The Wizard of Oz' (the Tin Man, Cowardly Lion, Scarecrow, Dorothy, and Toto) walking along the yellow brick road. A large, multi-colored rainbow arches over them, leading towards a green, cactus-like structure representing the Emerald City. The background is a dark, cloudy sky with a bright light source. The title 'the WIZARD of OZ' is prominently displayed in large, colorful, stylized letters. Text on the right side provides the performance dates, location, and times. The bottom left features the 'noda' logo and the Dalgety Players logo. The bottom right contains credits for the music and lyrics, and a disclaimer about the source material.

Supporting amateur theatre in times of need...

“ Our claim was dealt with efficiently. I sent in the relevant paperwork as requested with a covering letter and that was it! ”

“ Procedure was swift, simple and effective - pleasantly surprised ”

“ This is the first claim we have had over many years and the staff were most helpful. We will remain with Lloyd & Whyte and recommend them to other drama groups. ”
